"OUR PLACE IS IN THE FRESH AIR, UNDER THE BRIGHT NIGHT, GUN IN HAND BENEATH THE STARS. LET THE OTHERS CONTINUE WITH THEIR BANQUETS AND THEIR GAMES. WE, OUTSIDE, IN A TENSE FERVOUR AND VIGILANT, CAN ALREADY FEEL THE DAWN IN THE HAPPINESS OF OUR HEARTS."

CAN YOU HELP?

We've had a few letters saying we should broaden our appeal to young Europeans by taking in different forms of music.

So we're looking for Nationalists interested in different forms of music, from Country & Western to Heavy Metal, who'd like to do write ups for Final Conflict. Whether you like music from the 50's, 60's, 70's or whenever - we'd like to hear from you.

This is your magazine, so get in touch with us: FINAL CONFLICT, BCM BOX 6358, LONDON, WC1N 3XX, ENGLAND.

OUR VIEW

THE FINAL CONFLICT

Europe is in flames. We have seen: In Germany gangs of youths are taking the law into their own hands in an effort to save their land from mass immigration and now the corrupt politicians are starting to mouth their concern at immigration. In Ireland thousands of people, including many youths, have taken to the streets of Dublin, and elsewhere, demanding that abortion remain illegal, in the face of massive propaganda from the Marxists and liberals. In Poland Nationalists have staged mass demonstrations against the power of the Zionists. In Italy there have been mass demonstrations against immigration and revisionists have been banned from attending meetings there. A National Revolutionary HQ in Rome has been bombed by the Communists (or the State/Masons) a number of times. In Portugal the State recently tried to crush a National Revolutionary Movement, but the struggle continues. In Lithuania demonstrations and meetings have been held to warn people of the corruption in the 'West'. In England an American revisionist was banned from addressing a meeting in London.

The enemy thinks it is close to victory. Their 'Euro-Government' is established - though opposition is great. Their dream of a World Government looms closer, hence the continual talk of the New World Order. But despite the nearness of their dream (our nightmare) - things are also starting to fall apart for the Jewish/Masonic forces. The above events - and countless others - stand in their way.

Make no mistake - they are out to create a world of brain dead zombies, content to sit in front of the TV, work in meaningless jobs, and consume endless amounts of Coca-Cola and McDonalds. To do this, they must destroy the differences in the European peoples. They want to destroy the lesser languages, making them quaint tourist attractions. They want to destroy the White Race making all "Europeans" coffee coloured rootless people. They want to destroy the Faith of European people by introducing a One World religion. They want to destroy the family through divorce, abortion, homosexuality, feminism etc. etc. They want to destroy the seperate Nations of Europe and their cultures.

In short, their New World Order will have as its foundations your Race, your Nation, your Faith, your Culture, your Folk, your Family. What are you going to do about it? Stand up and fight! Do not fear ridicule, humiliation, setbacks, defeat or death because we have Truth, Justice, Tradition and God on our side. Join our fight.

PRICE INCREASE

You will notice that FC is now more of a magazine, with a glossy cover (as compared to issue 1 which was more of a paper). We apologise for the increase in cover price, but printing and distribution costs mean we had to up the price to £1. Not an expensive price for a quality Nationalist magazine, we're sure you'll agree. Those who subscribed to Final Conflict after issue 1 will not have to pay any extra (unless they wish to do so).

DEAD BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Four good friends were taken from us in March 1992. As you will see on the facing page, this issue of Final Conflict is dedicated to their memory. Three of them, Casey, Brian and Darran will be known to many as members of the Nationalist band 'Violent Storm'. It has been a difficult time for the families and friends of all four, but in their short lives they provided us with what they lived for, good music with a good message. The tributes to them have come in from all over the world, some from people they'd never met, but who knew them through their music and in spirit. What better testament could they have asked for? They are now in God's hands, so let's do what they would want and fight on for all we hold dear; in memory of our four fallen comrades.

PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW ADDRESS. ALL MAIL SHOULD BE SENT TO:

BOUND FOR GLORY

Bound For Glory are one of the best Nationalist bands to emerge in the last few years. Our thanks go to Ed for answering the interview. With their uncompromising stance and excellent music, they really are Bound For Glory . . .

1. What is the present line-up of Bound For Glory?
E. the current line-up of BFG is: Joel (vocals), Eric (drums), Carl (bass), and Ed (guitar).

2. When did the band form and why?
E. BFG formed in March of 1989 due to the need for a real skinhead band from America to represent the views of the true Racialist skins in America.

3. What is the link, in your view, between music and politics?
E. Our views pertain to our Revolutionary Racial ideals and to show our strength we play aggressive music; i.e. hard hitting lyrics with a driving sound.

4. What sort of message do you want to spread with your songs?
E. One of strength, pride and world-wide Racial unity for the oncoming Revolution we are facing, against Communism, Capitalism and Zionism.

5. Is there anyone, past or present, who has inspired the band - if so, why?
E. There are many great men and women that have inspired us. Personally, I'm greatly inspired by the soldiers of the Reich that battled the odds against the red tides for the love of their Fatherlands. The list is very long, but some of these men are Leon Degrelle, Hans Ulrich Rudel, Otto Skorzeny, Kurt Panzer Meyer etc. These were some of the men who didn't sit behind desks, but took it to the battle fields in the name of their Fatherlands.

6. What does the American flag mean to you?
E. It means to me a Zionist fornicator of other Nations. It stands for what is called America, a land of no culture. You can be black and it's your flag. You can be yellow, it's your flag, etc. That flag does not stand for me! This is the flag under which "American" culture comes to Europe in the form of "American" things such as McDonalds, United Colors of Benetton, also G.I.s of dark skin are occupying Germany and mixing with the German women. The flag to me represents a nightmare.

7. Does religion mean anything to you?
E. Race is more important to me! My religious ideals are secondary. I personally have an Odinist point of view.

8. The cover of your first LP shows the victory of the German tribes over the Romans. Why did you choose this?
E. The title song, as well as the LP title, is "Warriors Glory" and the song deals with the unmerciful ways of the warriors of the past. The cover Viking is Herman. He united the German tribes to defeat the Romans who at the time were spreading their perverted, mongrelised tyranny across Europe. And it was a final victory for Herman to save his land and people from the invaders. The final battle took place in the Teutabery forest. On the LP, the second half of the song "Warriors Glory" deals with the new defenders, the ones who must smash those trying to kill our folk, and those new warriors are the skinheads!

BOUND FOR GLORY

"There will never be an end to our story
We'll carry on the faith of the Warriors Glory."

9. Were you pleased with the LP?
E. Yes, I was quite pleased. However, some songs were a bit rushed and I had some technical difficulties with my amplifier, so I wasn't too happy with the guitar sound on a few tracks.

10. What's the 'scene' like in the USA?
E. It's different from city to city. There aren't that many skinheads in the USA. Skinhead life is difficult in America, so it's only for the hardcore who believe in our way of life.

11. Have you played many gigs?
E. We've played about 15 gigs, our last one being in East Germany in front of about 1,300 skins!

12. What kind of problems do you face in day to day life?
E. On one hand there's the non-White gangs who are armed to the teeth that you have to watch out for. Then, on the other hand, there's the FBI government goons and police squad that are looking to set you up for crimes that you haven't done or else they're looking to arrest you for anything, like spitting in the streets. George Bush has made it a point to say that he'll try to have all skinheads of America in jail by 1996.

13. What do you do apart from playing in a band?
E. I'm a bouncer at a night club and I'm involved in spreading the White message. I'm affiliated with the Northern Hammer Skinheads.

14. What do you know about, and what do you think of the 'scene' in Europe?
E. I think it's glorious! In every country White Nationalism is on the increase. It's great to see. Also I sense great Racial unity between skins of different Nations, and that is the main key to victory. The Jews have been excellent in creating Brothers' Wars, but no more! This time we'll have the last laugh!

15. Do you think the Gulf War was a just war, or do you think America should have stayed out?
E. It goes to show you how much power the Jews have in this world (especially America). They have a powerful armed force, yet they get American soldiers as well as others (England too) to risk their lives, and shed blood for the defense of Israel. It was a sham! I feel no White man should have been over there.

16. What are your future plans?
E. More LPs to record, and more concerts in Europe!

17. Have you any messages for readers of Final Conflict and European Nationalists in general?
E. I give my heartfelt Racial greetings to all Racial Comrades of Europe! Stay strong, we will win!

NEWS FROM ITALY

On the 2nd of May near Rome a successful gig was organised by Movimento Politico. Skullhead, Peggior Amico, Gesta Bellica and Bulldog Skin played good sets.

Skullhead, this being their first Italian "experience" did not fail and were hailed by Comrades coming from all Italian towns.

It is worth noting that the same day, the reds held a counter meeting 15km away from our meeting. 100 poor idiots turned up for the red meeting in terrible rain while decent people ignored them completely.

Another gig was organised in Milan a month before. There was no problem again. It was a good gig with Italian bands and also Storkraft from Germany and Division 250 from Spain.

The problem in Rome and in Italy now is the fact that after the big demonstration against immigration of last February (1000 people marched through the streets of Rome) everything organised by NR Movements is either banned or endangered by the authorities. The last example was a revisionist meeting where David Irving was supposed to speak. But at the airport he was told to return home as an undesirable person. Another example of Jewish arrogance.

NOW AVAILABLE: Video of the above gig featuring SKULLHEAD and PEGGIOR AMICO. Called, as was the gig, 'Skinhead Rock Band'. This VHS video costs just £14.99 inc. p&p from: Freedom Videos, BM Truth, London, WC1N 3XX, England. HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

Smash all immigration controls!

The sticker on the left belongs to the NOP, a Polish National Revolutionary Movement which is at the forefront of defending Poland from the dangers of the Capitalist West now that Communism doesn't have the strangle hold there that it once did.

Foreignors - especially those of the (self)chosen Race - look likely to buy up vast tracts of Poland and her industry as Polish money is worth little when compared to the almighty dollar. Poland is also under threat from degeneracy as the fight against abortion heats up and other evils like drugs and sex shops spread throughout the land.

The sticker above belongs to the British Marxist group - 'Workers Power'. We doubt if the working class favours this idea. The answer to our problems lies in repatriating immigrants - not letting more in.

THE ALF

BY A NATIONALIST VEGAN

The Animal Liberation Front (ALF) was founded on the sickening liberal idea that animals should have equal rights with humans. It is this daft idea that motivates most ALF activists and supporters, but not all of them. I totally support the actions of ALF as I'm a vegan, but I'm no liberal. Being a vegan means that I do not eat meat, fish, eggs, milk, honey or anything made with them. Nor do I wear leather, wool, fur etc. In short, I do not use any animal products. One of the reasons for this is simple; the 'industry' which produces these items is evil or at best bloody sick.

So what do ALF activists do? The answer falls into two areas. Economic sabotage and directly saving animals. The first is the easyest of the two. Three or four friends in a car drive slowly through town with catapults. They then break windows with ball bearings or nuts. Targets would include fur, leather, gun and fishing shops, butchers, betting shops, Boots the chemist, McDonalds etc. Putting superglue in the locks of their doors and shutters is something which one person on foot can do. A bit of red paint can also brighten up a shop nicely, 'ALF - Meat is Murder', 'Fur Bloody Stinks' etc.

Activists have left small incendiaries in shops, timed to go off at night. They set off sprinklers and cause thousands of pounds worth of water damage. Setting fire to meat trucks is another activity which the ALF does quite a bit of; always making sure that the driver is not sleeping in the cab. If you think about it the list is endless with only one rule - never endanger any life.

The second area of activity is much harder. To save/liberate animals is not easy because it is no simple task to get into zoos, farms or laboratories. Even if you get in and out with animals you then need safe/caring homes for the animals you have saved. So it takes a lot of careful planning, but still every year thousands are saved in this way.

To join the ALF is easy. Anyone who carries out direct action against those who abuse animals is the ALF. There is no central address, no fees etc. - because the actions are "illegal". This means that the liberals cannot stop you, me or even Hitler himself from 'joining'. In fact, both Hitler and Hess were vegetarians and had the ALF been around in their day, they would no doubt have supported it (well, that will give the liberals something to moan about). About 200 people have been to prison over the years for ALF actions. Many have been fined too. A lot of ALF activists walk free after being arrested - after a day or two - the rule is to stay silent no matter what the police say to you.

If you are not active you may like to read: 'Turning Point' from PO Box 45, Northolt, Mddx., UB5 6SZ, England; 'Arkangel' from BCM 9240, London, WC1N 3XX, England; or the booklet written for patriots "A Vegan Diet For a Healthy Folk and Nation" for £1 from BCM Box 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

NATIONALIST ACTION

For the first time in many years, Nationalists took to the streets of Shrewsbury on Saturday, 17th of October. Many leaflets, putting the National Revolutionary view against the "united Europe" were handed out and a Celtic Cross flag attracted much attention. A picket was also held outside the local Communist shop "Crabapple", much to the dismay of the Marxists who run the shop. The Reds have considered Shrewsbury theirs for a long time. This NR show of force proved otherwise. Local activists tell us that they will not let up, as they intend to build the Movement in their area and provide a valid alternative to those sick of the system who may have fallen for Communist lies otherwise.

WHAT A SHAME (YAWN)

THE MASTER tape for an LP due to be released to raise funds for Anti Fascist Action (AFA) and the Anti Nazi League (ANAL) were stolen from a concert in Newport, Gwent. Dean Beddis, singer with the Newport band 'The Cowboy Killers' was most vexed by the theft. According to The Western Mail newspaper anyone with info. can contact Mark on: 0633 257244. We're sure our readers will help him as much as they can.

IRELAND VS. ABORTION

The establishment in Ireland is worried. Pro-abortion politicians and doctors have had their homes targeted by pro-Life activists. One group, Youth Defence, much to the disdain of the politicians, media etc. have: refused to stop using pictures of aborted babies; refused to stop picketing the homes of politicians and doctors; refused to stop people under the age of 16 from taking part in their campaign.

Whilst the liberals say they oppose the availability of abortion in Ireland, but do not oppose the right of Irish women to travel abroad to get abortions, Youth Defence oppose both. After all, murder is murder - no matter where you go to do it.

Eamonn Gilmore of Democratic Left (the new name for one of the many Communist Parties) called on the pro-Life movement to stop Youth Defence's "storm-trooping tactics".

If Ireland is to remain abortion-free, then the fight must be fought with the courage needed in the face of the rainbow alliance of Marxists, Capitalists, feminists and liberals.

ULSTER VS. ABORTION

In Ulster, the liberals and Marxists are fighting for the right of the 'Brook Advisory Centre' to give out information on abortion.

Both Catholics and Protestants in this trouble strewn Nation have come out against the centre. The Reds could only muster a few hundred at a demonstration - many bused in from Dublin.

The IRA has remained quiet about the Brook murder information centre. They cannot speak out publically in favour of it for fear of loosing Marxist support, especially in the UK. But they cannot speak out against it as they'd like to, for fear of loosing Catholic support. They are in a Catch 22 situation.

THE ROAD TO ROSTOCK AND BEYOND
NEWS FROM GERMANY

In September in the Bavarian town of Passau the Republikaner gained 11% of the vote for the city council. However, 50% of the people did not bother to vote. In Berlin during the municipal elections 40% of the people did not bother to vote. A higher percentage than any party acheived. This shows how the people are fed up with the present government and do not trust the present opposition.

German reunification happened against the will of the West German ruling class and there is a kind of undercover hatred against the East Germans and because they have no concept of reunification they are now making mistake after mistake.

The East Germans are dissappointed because they expected some kind of gratefulness for their historical deed.

The greatest mistake the rulers made in this context was when they brought "exotic" foreignors to East Germany. The locals there opposed this when the communists brought in Angolans and Vietnamese and are opposing it now that Kohl is bringing in Gypsies and Tamils. Unlike the West Germans they have enough courage to let their anger take shape in deeds because they have overcome the communist tyranny by themselves. Parts of the East German establishment are supporting this because the West are exporting their second class politicians to East Germany who are thus taking the jobs the East German politicians wanted.

The local police in Rostock rerfused to protect the immigrants nor would they turn on their own people. They "lost" the video films or "forgot" to put the films in at all, so now it is impossible to identify the 'fascists'. After this, the government flew in police from West Germany and it was with them that the youths fought the battles you saw on TV. Before the locals started to attack the immigrants they wrote letters and petitions to the politicians for about 4 months. During this time the gypsies stole from the shops, stole from elderly women walking home from the shops, urinated in the hall-ways etc.

It is also interesting to know that it was not an under-priviledged living area as was reported in the media. In the communist era only the better off were allocated flats in this area whereas others lived in the old houses with no central heating etc.

The system took the immigrants to other areas after the riots in three towns (Hoyerswerda, Quedlinburg and Rostock). From many other places, the immigrants ran away by themselves. This is the biggest defeat for the system since WW2. In some East German cities, the infrastructure of the militant left, who are used by the system as stormtroops against us, is almost destroyed (pubs and occupied houses, burned out etc.). In Leipzig people who look like leftists have to be in fear of being beaten up by 'fascists' in the open in daylight. The media don't report this because they fear that too many of their leftist stormtroops would loose their couratge. The 'fascists' however, are gaining courage due to their victories and are looking for new battles.

The Russian soldiers are selling their weapons everywhere in East Germany because they need money desperately and the 'fascists' are buying them, eager to use them against the communists. The politicians are giving in and are saying now that "something" has to be done against illegal immigration, which is a big mistake from their point of view because it shows the people that you can do something by militant action.

The political police exploded a bomb at a street festival in Hannover after the Rostock riots in order to demonstrate to the sympathetic public that not only immigrants, but anyone can become a victim of the "racists". They did similar things on two other occasions shortly afterwards.

What we now face is the aftermath of Rostock. The next big eruption will be considerably larger than the one in Rostock; the same as Rostock was bigger than Hoyerswerda. The climax will be when the riots take place in East Berlin and the West Berlin autonomous left will be wiped out in one big battle.

The next big defeat for the system will be the inevitable repopulation of the north of East Prussia with Germans. The Germans in the former USSR don't want to stay there anymore; in the Asian republics they cannot stay much longer even if they wanted to. The government here does not want them because they want to keep the place free for non-German immigrants. On the other hand the Russian administration in East Prussia does want them as they hope that they will receive considerable economic aid from Germany once they are there. The Germans in the former USSR are willing to settle there because they think that an old German territory will be safe. These plans on the side of the ethnic Germans date back as far as the 1970s. Our government, however, does not want them to settle there because they fear that this land will become German again. None the less it is inevitable that once the Germans are there the government must pay, but the Germans won't believe it when the government tells them that it never wants East Prussia to become German again.

This booklet - recently reprinted after many years - outlines how Guernsey freed itself from slavery to the banks, because of usury, to being a prosperous island with a healthy economy. As our people are bled dry by taxes which for the most part go to the banks because of government borrowing we should make it our business to know what is going on. This most important booklet should be read by everyone to see how easy it is to break free of debt slavery. It costs just £2.50 from 'Final Conflict', BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

STRAW DOGS

STRAW DOGS are a White, Working Class group, who believe in keeping fit. They are anti-Communist, as Communism is only an international conspiracy to keep all workers as slaves. They believe in a strong family and a high moral standard, and detest people in all levels of society who would wish to undermineour standards.

1. When did Straw Dogs form?
S.D.: Straw Dogs got together in June 1991 because there were no "Oi" gigs in London at the time. The line-up is: Tony - Vocals. Rob - Guitar. Pat - Bass. Mark - Drums.

2. Have you played many gigs?
S.D.: We have now played 9 gigs in England.

3. Do you have problems getting gigs?
S.D. Gigs are quite easy to get as the bad economic situation means that pubs and clubs need our business. The only problem is from homosexuals and lefties trying to get our gigs banned.

4. Who do you think influences you most?
S.D. We are influenced mostly by early punk with the aggression of skinhead "Oi". At the moment we rate Section 5, Resistance 77 and Arresting Officers.

5. What do you think of Ska music?
S.D.: We dance to Ska when we've drunk too much, but apart from that we think it is crap. Most of the bands are middle class students and not skins anyway.

6. Are all the band skinheads?
S.D.: Yes. We have all been skinheads for over 10 years.

7. Why?
S.D.: It's hard to put into words. It's the clothes, the music, skinhead girls, and being part of a cult that survives against all the odds.

8. Are there many skins in your area?
S.D.: There are still a lot of skinheads about, but as a lot of them are in their 20's and have commitments (like houses, kids, jobs etc.) and don't go out too often. A small gig in London will attract over 200 (mostly skins) and gigs are becoming more frequent.

9. Are you happy with your first record, the 7" 'Dead on Arrival'?
S.D.: We are not 100% happy with 'Dead on Arrival', but it has gone down well and it seems that we have gained a lot of support from it.

10. Do you think immorality is a problem in the UK today?
S.D.: As a group we take a staunch stance on morals and reject all that is ruining this society. Drugs and homosexuals are a big threat to the youth of our Nations and should be wiped out.

Copies of Final Conflict issue 1 are still available for 70p inc. p&p. (£1 overseas). If you want a few copies to distribute, drop us a line and we'll sort out a discount price. Write to: Final Conflict, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

11. Any plans for the future?
S.D.: We will have a track on an international album 'Oi! It's a World League' due out soon. Hopefully our second single will also be out soon. We hope to play gigs in Europe this year

12. A few last words?
S.D. We would like to say hello to all true European skinheads. Keep the faith. Cheers - Straw Dogs.

THE INTERNATIONAL THIRD POSITION

The ITP is a federation of National Revolutionary organisations, groups and individuals across Europe and other continents too.

We are not interested in elections or marches. These are a waste of time and money. We are building a counter-power to the corrupt establishment, via traditional schools/home schooling, small businesses, usury free finance, rural communities etc.

The ITP is fighting to win. We are not interested in short term media publicity binges. We are not playing the numbers game - we believe in quality over quantity.

There are 3 ways to win Europe back. The first, elections, cannot work. The second, terrorism, we condemn because our own people suffer. The third, building a counter-power is the only viable way and the ITP is the only Nationalist force actually doing it.

Don't waste time. We must fight back NOW. Join our fight. Contact: The Secretary, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

Please let us know if you are interested in our week-long or weekend camps, or helping a 'day of action' in a town near you. Also mention if you are especially interested in: Abortion, Animal Welfare, Art (Drawing), Distributism/Economics, Home Schooling, Youth Cultures/Music, Student Activism, Revisionism, Craftsmanship or whatever . . .

If possible send a SAE (IRC from abroad) or even a small donation for an info. pack.

LEARNING FROM THE PAST

If there is one thing the liberals are always telling us, it's that we must learn from the past. Of course they are usually refering to the Holohoax - because that is all we are allowed to remember. We Nationalists should take a leaf from their book and start looking at our own past and seeing where we took a wrong turn or where we could have made progress and didn't. This article looks at the history of a Roman National Revolutionary group - DART. It is written by an ex-member so in effect is from "the horses mouth". DART may have been stamped out by the Italian State, but their spirit lives on. La Rivoluzione e' come il vento. . .

A few years ago a small number of Comrades decided to give life to something different from the usual political or cultural organisation. We were tired with the way the political struggle was being carried out, left, as it was, in the hands of people who were loosing touch with reality. The situation reflected the tale of those experts who closed themselves in a room for twenty years to study what they thought was the current way of thinking of the people, only to find out, when they emerged from their hole, that (surprise surprise) all their work was twenty years out of date.

This is what was happening in Rome, or at least this is what we thought: there were a lot of good Comrades and a lot of good will, but things didn't seem to be moving. So, some members of the Fronte della Gioventu founded DART as a musical division of the FdG.

In the beginning, DART was just a regrouping of people interested in art, especially rock music, and slowly we became aware of the great possibilities of this path. Very simply, we realised that each age has dominant features, and the true aims of a Traditionalist is to use these features as a vehicle for ideas which unlike the features, that tend to decay, are eternal. Having clearly defined what our ideas were (that is to say Hierarchy, Inner Order, Organic Community . . .) we started to confront a few of the problems 'on the table'.

This is a decaying age, an age of 'space eaters' who will burn any distance and who will never really have a place they can call home. An age of image-devourers who will never have time to enjoy beauty. An age of instant information in which you get submerged by tons of news just to fill your head full of rubbish as you lose the only information that you'll ever need: who you are.

Whereas Tradition meant firmness, especially Spiritual firmness, the modern world is, in general, a quicksand, facelessly killing cultures and identities.

To cultivate a clear and definate identity is certainly one of the best ways of counter-action, but if you intend to start this, you will have to do a bit more. You will need to confront the adversary on its own ground, and this means, being far removed from the possibilities of having papers, television, satellites etc., looking into the creases of communication to find the loose links of the chain . . .

This was the way we decided to, basically, make political headway through rock music, as a dynamic form of intervention which fitted our tastes and in doing this we obviously came into contact with the skinhead movement which had taken, spontaneously, a similar path. Obviously we gave it maximum support, although we never meant to be a skinhead movement ourselves. As a matter of fact DART had a consistent number of skinhead members but was always oriented in other directions. Our real aim was to establish dynamic means of counter-action. The skinhead movement was certainly one of them (and, by the way, was already established for many years, though not in Rome) but there was a need for others...

Being not merely political, DART co-operated with several NR organisations. For example, they attended our events and held stalls at gigs and meetings, and took part in demonstrations.

As far as concerns events organised by DART, I would say the first real gig was in Rome in 1987 with Verde Bianco Rosso. The concert was for Alberto Giaquinto, a Comrade killed by the police in Rome more than 10 years ago. This successful event was attended by more than 300 members of different NR Movements.

The pictures on the screen behind the stage were very inspiring. They showed, song by song, different aspects of our struggle: demonstrations; clashes with the police; and with the reds; fascist parades etc.

The last event organised by DART was very important too. This was the concert against drugs. It went ahead despite the desperate attempts of the Communists and police. It was attended by many Comrades, mostly skinheads, but also casuals, 'heavy metallers' etc.

Notice of the gig was given on a local radio and while Roman Skinhead band Intolleranza and the heavy metal band Finger Nails were entertaining the crowd, the Communists made threats which we were ready to face.

Unfortunately the life of our group came to an end too soon to achieve great results (but we can assure you that especially in Rome, we didn't pass unnoticed...) but the way in which the end came (beyond the specific episode that in itself could have been overcome), as the group as a whole had lost its flame, clearly shows what is the first and foremost lesson: THE ESTABLISHING OF A SOLID, UNITED, SELF-SUFFICIENT COMMUNITY. We'll remember next time . . .

How many of you were unfortunate enough to see the TV programme when Nicola Crane confessed to being a bender? I hope the perverted shirt-lifter gets what he deserves - a bullet in the head. # How come the European Community is still going for a Euro-government? Denmark voted no. According to the 'Treaty of Rome' if one says no - they all say no. SMASH THE EEC. # See how the Croatians and Bosnians were left to be killed by the Communist Serbs. No 'Operation Balkan Storm' by the USA & co. Still, Serbia hasn't threatened Israel. One law for them . . . # How can the UK govt. put tens of thousands of miners on the dole and close down pits when British Coal is the cheapest produced coal in Europe? What conspiracy? Oh vey. # First against the wall will be Radio One DJs. Their liberal pro-poof, pro-abortion, pro-multi-racial views are pushed down everyone's throats every day regardless. # See you next issue chums.

THE "BATTLE OF WATERLOO"

YOU'D HAVE to have been on another planet on the weekend of September 12th not to have heard about the violence in Central London. A concert went ahead in SE London at which Skrewdriver, No Remorse and Dirlewanger all played blinding sets. But prior to this the Reds had attacked anyone normal looking who went near the re-direction point at Waterloo.

We were lucky in that we eventually reached the gig after going around on the underground and trains for a few hours, and if a Londoner with us hadn't had a phone number of someone who knew where the gig was on him, we too would have had to turn for home. That would have included the people with us from Sweden, France, Luxembourg, Spain and Italy.

Others weren't so lucky. A van load of Nationalists from Cardiff (and a car following them) were caught up in the violence and in the end had to turn for home because they had no idea where the gig was. They did make it onto the News at Ten that night though when viewers saw them surrounded by unwashed Communists (fame at last).

It's a shame people missed the concert because it was excellent. The spirit of everyone there was undaunted by the media-termed 'Battle of Waterloo'. Let's hope more concerts go ahead in London - and anywhere else we want them to. We shouldn't be dictated to by Marxist filth.

The views expressed in Final Conflict are not necessarily those of the people who put it together. They are those of the people who write the article or interview in question. We do not necessarily endorse all products, organisations etc. advertised. We are opposed to multi-racism but don't think people should attack immigrants. The system is responsible for them being here. Final Conflict is protected by copyright and we won't take kindly to people who nick artwork, articles etc. without gaining permission first.
